

Reading

Can you guess the name of this famous person? Read each paragraph. Then try to answer the question.

I'm in my early 20s, I'm left-handed, and I'm 6'2" tall. Pictures of me are often in newspapers and magazines and sometimes on TV too.

Who am I? _____ (If you don't know the answer, read the next paragraph.)

Right now I'm a college student in Great Britain. I'm interested in art history and geography. I'm very athletic. I'm a good swimmer. I play tennis and I ski. I also like to cycle, fish, and hunt. I watch soccer and rugby games a lot too.

Who am I? _____ (If you still don't know the answer, read the next paragraph.)

My father is also famous. He's in his 50s. He has two brothers and one sister. Their names are Andrew, Edward, and Anne. He plays polo and likes to ski, write, and paint. He's the author of several books.

Who am I? _____ (If you still don't know the answer, read the next paragraphs.)

I have a brother. He's two years younger than me. His name's Henry, but we call him Harry. He's very athletic too. He's a very good polo player, and he likes to ski.

We have four cousins. Their names are Beatrice, Eugenie, Peter, and Zara.

Who am I? _____ (If you still don't know the answer, read the next paragraphs.)

My grandmother is the most famous person in our family. She's an important person in Great Britain. She's a real animal lover. She likes horses a lot, and she has many dogs.

My grandfather is from Greece. He's very nice, but he's not as famous as my grandmother.

Who am I? _____

