1. Read these ads for different summer camps. Which camp would you be interested in? Which camp wouldn't you choose? Rank them from 1 to 5 (1 is the best).

Were you bored last summer? Do you want to do something fun and interesting this summer? Why not try a summer camp? You're sure to find something perfect for you. Here are some choices.

Cold Mountain Camp: Go boating, hiking, and mountain biking. Play tennis, basketball, golf, and soccer. Water sports are very popular here. Enjoy swimming, waterskiing, and sailing in magnificent lakes. If you like outdoor activities, you'll love Cold Mountain Camp.

East College Computer Camp: Here on the East College campus there are two-, three-, and four-week sessions filled with exciting activities for technology buffs. Kids between the ages of 12 and 16 produce digital movies, create video games, compose and mix digital music, and design web pages.

Green Nature Camp: Do you enjoy studying and working with animals? Are you interested in nature? At Green Nature Camp, you'll participate in a variety of activities from taking care of animals to doing science projects on bears. Nature walks will teach you things about the environment you could never learn from a book or video.

Hidden Woods Camp: Here in the beautiful, peaceful woods, we offer fun-filled three-week sessions. Enjoy activities in drama, dance, photography, and creative art. You can participate in swimming, tennis, horseback riding, and several different outdoor games.

Hollywood Summers: Are you an aspiring movie maker? Would you like a chance to make movies and act in them? The four-week sessions at our southern California campus are for junior high and high school age students. Activities include acting, directing, movie making, film editing, and screenwriting.
