

Reading

1. Read these stories. Have you ever had experiences like these?

Bob's Story

Last Saturday I went to the movies. While I was locking up my bike in front of the theater, I noticed a little dog running down the street. No one was taking care of it. I ran after it, but the dog was faster than I was. While I was chasing it, I fell and sprained my wrist. Instead of seeing a movie, I saw a doctor at the emergency room.

Rosa's Story

While I was watching TV last night, the phone rang. When I answered it, no one said anything. I waited a minute and just listened. Someone was on the other end, but didn't say anything. Finally, a small voice said, "Can I come over?" I asked who it was. It was the little girl next door. She was bored and she wanted to play. I invited her over and we watched cartoons together.

Andy's story

While I was walking home from school one afternoon last week, I heard someone call my name. I looked everywhere, but I didn't see anyone. Then, a few minutes later, I heard my name again. I said, "Hello. Who are you?", but no one appeared. When I got home, my sister greeted me happily. She heard that there was a car accident, and that a teenage boy was badly hurt. She had been thinking about me and saying my name over and over to herself. I wonder...

2. Read the questions. Then write the correct names next to each.

- Rosa 1. Who invited a little girl over?
- _____ 2. Who tried to help an animal?
- _____ 3. Who walked home from school?
- _____ 4. Who fell?
- _____ 5. Who talked to a family member?
- _____ 6. Who stayed home?

