

Reading

2. Read the conversation. Who do you agree with—Jenny or Ben?

Jenny: Did you see American Boyfriend last night? It's that new reality TV show. This guy is taped while he goes out on dates with ten different women.

Ben: Yeah, it was great! I was amazed when Billy asked Melanie to go to the movies with him and she started laughing. It was like a situation comedy.

Jenny: Well, I didn't think it was so funny. He looked really hurt. And why would people want to have a camera crew following them around 24 hours a day anyway?

Ben: Maybe they want to be famous. Or, maybe they are awed by the amount of money they can win.

Jenny: Then they should go on a game show. I can't imagine millions of people watching me brush my teeth and eat my breakfast.

Ben: It wouldn't be so bad. It's only for a couple weeks.

Jenny: You know, sometimes I don't even think American Boyfriend is real. It's probably written by someone in Hollywood.

Ben: I don't think so. The people are chosen by a producer and they're put in front of a camera before they know what's happening.

Jenny: Well, you'll never see me on one of those shows!

2. Write the correct names next to each question.

Ben 1. Who liked American Boyfriend?

_____ 2. Who asked Melanie to go out with him?

_____ 3. Who doesn't want to be filmed in her house?

_____ 4. Who said reality TV is like a sitcom?

_____ 5. Who doesn't think American Boyfriend is real?

_____ 6. Who says the people on the show are chosen by a producer?

