

Vocabulary

Expressions with get (1)

1. Circle the correct sentence in each pair.

1. a. He always gets away with little or no punishment.
 b. He always gets away with our homework.

2. a. I always get together with my friends on the weekend.
 b. I always get over my friends on the weekend.

3. a. It will be difficult, but you will get over leaving your boyfriend.
 b. It will be difficult, but you will get together with leaving your boyfriend.

4. a. Amy gets through everyone.
 b. Amy gets along with everyone.

5. a. I got along with not studying for the exam. I got an A.
 b. I got away with not studying for the exam. I got an A.

6. a. Somehow we got through our term papers.
 b. Somehow we got along with our term papers.

7. a. Let's get together after class.
 b. Let's get over after class.

8. a. It took me a couple days to get together with getting an F on the test.
 b. It took me a couple days to get over getting an F on the test.

Vocabulary

Expressions with get (2)

2. Read each sentence. Then rewrite each using an expression from the box.

get along	get together	get over	get through	get away with
-----------	--------------	----------	-------------	---------------

1. I have a good relationship with my brother's friends.

I get along with my brother's friends. _____

2. I avoided punishment for staying out after midnight on Friday.

3. Somehow I will complete my ten hours of homework.

4. I want to go out with my friends on Saturday.

5. It's taking me a long time to recover from this cold.

