This book has a printing error on page 117. Please use this sheet as a substitute. We apologize for the inconvenience.

2 FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Grammar Notes 1–2

Complete the sentences. Choose from the words in parentheses.

1. My _____ (a. mother / mother's) mother is my _____ (b. grandmother / grandmother's).
2. My _____ (a. father / father's) mother is my _____ (b. grandmother / grandmothers), too.
3. My _____ (a. brother / brother's) _____ (b. son / sons) is my nephew.
4. My _____ (a. brother / brother's) daughters are my _____ (b. niece / nieces).
5. My husband's _____ (brother/ brothers) are my brothers-in-law.
6. My grandmother's daughter is my _____ (a. aunt / aunts) or my _____ (b. mother / mother's).
7. My _____ (a. grandfathers / grandfather's) son is my _____ (b. uncle / uncles) or my father.
8. My father's _____ (a. daughter / daughter's) is my _____ (b. sister / sister's) or _____ (c. me / my).

3 MY, YOUR, HIS, HER, OUR, THEIR, ITS

Grammar Notes 1, 3

Complete the sentences. Use a possessive adjective.

1. My sister studies in Toronto. ___*Her*___ school is on Victoria Street.
2. She goes to Edgewood University. She likes _____ classes.
3. Carlos's parents work at the United Nations. _____ jobs are interesting. His mother is a translator and his father is an interpreter.
4. Right now my brother is in Peru, _____ wife is in Belize, and _____ children are in the United States.
5. Does your brother like _____ job?
6. Their rabbit's name is Biddy. _____ fur is soft.
7. Do you use _____ calculator every day in math class?
8. Does your grandmother like _____ new apartment? Is she happy there?