5 Read the letter and correct the sentences. [8 points]

Dear Sophie,

I'm finally in San Francisco! I can't believe that I'm actually sitting in Golden Gate Park! I can see the Museum of Natural History from here. The weather is beautiful, and everything is going perfectly. I'm here with Laura, the girl I'm staying with, and a few of her friends. They are helping me decide what to do for the next few days. Everyone is so nice. We're making plans to see everything we can while I'm here. That includes visiting Coit Tower, walking across the Golden Gate Bridge, and shopping in the stores on Union Square. I hope I have enough money with me! I know the prices aren't cheap. I want to see the redwoods, too. We have to do that early in the morning, because so many people go to the forest, and it gets very crowded. Walking through a forest full of people doesn't sound so great.

I sure wish you were here, too. You don't know what you're missing! Write and tell me what's going on at home. I miss you!
