5 Read the text and answer the questions. (1 point each)

1. What does Martin do to holes in people's molars?

He fills them.

2. Is Fiona's company old?

3. Are they both working today?

4. What is Martin doing?

5. How often do they visit Thomas?

6. Why do they visit him?

Volunteers

Martin is a dentist. He looks in people's mouths, fills holes in their molars, cleans their teeth and helps correct problems with teeth that aren't straight. He works in a clinic in the center of town.

Fiona is a web designer. She works for a new company that offers services to banks, insurance companies and other financial organizations. She designs web pages that are easy to use and secure for the companies.

Today is Saturday and neither of them are working. They are both volunteers with an organization called A Visit, a Hope. They are spending time with Thomas. He is 80 years old and has no family. Right now they are in his living room having a cup of tea. Martin is chatting to Thomas and Fiona is fixing a broken light for him.

They visit Thomas once a week to keep him company and help him with things he has to do in the house. During the week he can call them if he has any problems, but they usually go to his house on the weekend.
