

•VOCABULARY•

1 Complete the table with the words in the box. (1 point each)

sneakers	skirt	jeans	top	jacket
shorts	baseball cap	shirt	shoes	boots

Head	Body	Feet
		sneakers

2 Complete the sentences with the adjectives in the box. (1 point each)

short	big	expensive
long	small	casual

- I don't have much money. I can't afford to buy expensive clothes.
- Claire likes _____ scarves that she can wrap several times around her neck.
- In the summer, Alyssa prefers to wear _____ skirts instead of long ones.
- Those shoes are too _____. You need a bigger size.
- He feels more comfortable in _____ clothes rather than in a suit and tie.
- Michael's shirt is too _____. It's way down to his knees.

•GRAMMAR•

3 Complete the sentences with too and an adjective in the box. (1 point each)

young	loud	hot	old
far	heavy	small

- I can't hear you. The music is too loud.
- I'm not walking all the way to school. It's _____.

- You need a bigger size. It's _____.
- This suitcase is _____ for me to carry. Can you help me?
- No, you can't come home at 2:00 A.M. You're _____.
- We can't eat this soup. It's _____.
- He thinks he's _____ to play basketball. His knees hurt all the time.

4 Use not + the correct adjective + enough to complete the sentences. (1 point each)

- The water is not warm enough (warm / cold) to swim in.
- A T-shirt is _____ (casual / dressy) for a wedding.
- We can't all fit in her car. It's _____ (big / small).
- The blanket is _____ (long / short) to cover our feet.
- Your jeans are _____ (clean / dirty). Throw them in the washing machine.
- Your room is _____ (noisy / quiet) for me. Can you please turn that TV off?
- He's _____ (young / old) to drive. He'll have to wait another year.

5 Complete the sentences with an object pronoun in the box. (1 point each)

him	her	me	it	us	them
------------	------------	-----------	-----------	-----------	-------------

- That's a good book. Can I borrow it?
- I really like Hannah. Let's invite _____ to the party.
- Those shoes are nice. Where did you buy _____?
- I'm your friend. You can tell _____ your secrets.
- John's very angry. I think you should talk to _____.
- We can hear you, but you can't hear _____.

6 Complete the sentences with a possessive pronoun in the box. (1 point each)

theirs yours ours mine his hers

1. This is Mary's dictionary. It's hers.
2. Those are my shoes. They're _____.
3. That is my parents' car. It's _____.
4. These are George's jeans. They're _____.
5. This is your watch. It's _____.
6. We bought those chocolates.
They're _____.

•READING•

7 Read the text and write the name of the store for each sentence. (1 point each)

Shopping

Dekko is a sports store for all your snowboarding and surfing gear. Prices aren't cheap but the quality is fantastic. They also sell some great accessories.

Help the Poor is a charity store selling secondhand clothes in good condition. There are leather jackets, coats, dresses, men's suits, and more. A lot of the clothes look new and, remember, the money you spend here will help the poor.

If you're looking for something for a special occasion like a wedding or a party, then go to Princess. They sell beautiful dresses in simple styles. Just what you need for that special party when you want to look your best.

Paul's is a new store especially for teenage boys and young men. They have fashionable clothes at good prices. You can find jeans, T-shirts, and tops in all sizes. The clerks are very friendly, too.

1. This store sells sports clothes. Dekko
2. This store sells clothes for young men. _____
3. This store has dresses for special occasions. _____

4. This store doesn't sell new clothes.

5. This store gives money to the poor.

6. The clothes in this store are expensive but of good quality. _____
7. The people who work in this store will help you. _____
8. This store has great accessories.

9. This store does not sell casual clothes.

10. This store sells clothes that are the latest in fashion. _____

•COMMUNICATION•

8 Complete the dialogue by filling in the blanks with the missing lines (a-f). (1 point each)

FATHER: Where are you going?
 SON: I'm going to ¹ (a) meet Sonia.
 FATHER: You can't go out like that.
 SON: ² _____
 FATHER: You look awful. Those jeans are too baggy.
 SON: No, ³ _____
 FATHER: Yes, they are. They're falling down.
 SON: That's the fashion, Dad.
⁴ _____
 FATHER: Yes, I know, and you all look ridiculous.
 SON: Oh, Dad. ⁵ _____
 FATHER: What do you mean, I don't understand?
 SON: Look, Dad, let's talk about it later.
⁶ _____

- ~~a.~~ meet Sonia.
- b. We all wear them like this.
- c. You don't understand.
- d. Why not?
- e. I have to go now.
- f. they're not.