Shopping

Dekko is a cool sports store for all your skateboarding, snowboarding, and surfing gear. You'll find all the top brands. Prices aren't cheap, but the quality is fantastic and their styles look good. They also sell some great accessories for your favorite sports.

Help the Poor is a charity store selling secondhand clothes in good condition. If you have a good eye, you can find real bargains here - leather jackets, coats, dresses, men's suits, and a lot of the clothes really look new. Yes, there are also a lot of things here that you would never wear which may not be the latest fashion but, remember, the money you spend here will help the poor.

If you're looking for something for a special occasion like a wedding or a New Year's Eve party, then this is the place for you. Princess sells beautiful, elegant dresses in simple styles for young women. Just what you need for that special party when you want to look your best. Prices are reasonable, too.

Paul's is a new store especially for teenage boys and young men. They have fashionable clothes at good prices. You can find jeans, T-shirts, and tops in all sizes. They also carry a smarter range of shirts, jackets, and trousers for special occasions. The clerks are very friendly and if you can't decide what to buy, they'll help you choose.
