

> Consolidation

1 Complete the sentences using too + adjective or not + adjective + enough. Use the adjective in parentheses.

- I wear a size 8. This dress is a size 4.
It's not big enough. (big)
- These sneakers hurt my feet. They are _____ . (small)
- I don't like my pants. They're _____ . (long) You can see my socks.
- We are going to a very nice restaurant. Jeans are _____ . (casual)
- I can't see your shoes. Your pants are _____ . (long)
- His shirt is covering his hands. His sleeves are _____ . (short)

2 Choose the correct object pronoun from the box.

him	them	it	her
------------	-------------	-----------	------------

- I never write to (my grandparents) ...
them
- I really like (the movie) ... _____
- Tom looks at (Jenny) ... _____
- We don't trust (Paul) ... _____

3 Complete the sentences with a possessive adjective.

- Our school is near where we live.
- Can I have an aspirin? _____ head hurts.
- Sandra can't play tennis because of a problem with _____ leg.
- "Is that _____ brother?" "My brother? No."
- They're lucky. _____ parents aren't strict at all.
- Mike got a new cell phone from _____ mother.
- We're the best. _____ team always wins.

> Extension

4 Rewrite the sentences using possessive pronouns.

- It's my ball.
The ball is mine.
- It's his bike.

- They're our chocolates.

- They're my CDs.

- It's their car.

- It's her CD player.

- They're your shoes, not my shoes.

- It's your problem.

5 Complete the sentences with possessive pronouns.

- "Can I look at your magazine?" "Ask Tanya. It's _____."
- It's your money and my money.
It's _____.
- That pen is _____, but you can use it. I have another one.
- "Is that Rob and Andrea's computer?" "Yes, it's _____."
- Take it. I don't want it. It's _____ now.
- Do you see that boy there? Well, the magazine is _____.
- Don't touch it! Lisa doesn't like people touching things that are _____.
- We have no homework, so the day is _____ to enjoy.
- "Is this Nina's cell phone?" "Yes, it's _____."