Karl's parents have just received a postcard from their son. Karl says he has been taken to Jupiter by aliens. Karl's mother said, "It's not the first time Karl has told us something like this. He has a lot of imagination and he has just bought a book about extraterrestrials. I suppose that's where he got the idea from."

Text 2

Martha and Patricia have just come back from a weekend in the country. "We've been to look for UFOs," said Martha, "and we've had a great time. We've seen some strange lights in the sky, and we've heard some mysterious noises." "We want to go again," added Patricia.

Text 3

"Chris has a special talent. He's telepathic – he can read your mind. It's incredible. For example, he's told me that I've had pizza for lunch and that I've just come home from school."

"But, Neil, everybody knows we have pizza at school on Thursdays, and it's five o'clock. Of course you've just come home from school."

"Oh. I didn't think of that."
