

WHOSE PLANS?

1 Read the texts and decide which plans you like the most. Circle your answer.

1. Sam's
2. Jamie's
3. Judith's
4. nobody's

a) Sam's plans

I'm going to have a quiet night on Friday. Some friends are coming round to my house, and we're going to watch a video and eat pizza. I think there'll probably be about six of us. On Saturday, I'm going to get up early because I have to study and I want to finish before lunch – I have an exam on Monday.

b) Jamie's plans

Some friends and I are going to the park. We're going to play chess. There are special tables, and we play against the people who are there. I don't think I'll win, but it'll be fun. After that, we're going to a hamburger restaurant to have something to eat. I really hope Judith will be there.

c) Judith's plans

At first the plan was to go to the movies, but now we're not going. I think we're going to a disco. I imagine we'll have a good time, but I'm not going to bed late because I want to study with Sam in the morning. Not because I want to study. I want to be with Sam!

2 Read the texts again and answer the questions.

1. What is Sam going to do on Friday?
Have a quiet night. _____
2. How many people will be there?

3. Why is he going to get up early on Saturday?

4. What is Jamie going to do in the park?

5. Is he confident?

6. Does he think he'll be hungry afterward?

7. Who does he like?

8. Is Judith going to the movies?

9. Is she going to bed early?

> Write

3 Write about some of your plans and your expectations. Think about these things:

- What are you going to do? Who are you going to be with?
- Where are you going to be? Will it be fun, interesting, boring, dangerous, etc.?
