Reading

7 Read the following article and answer the questions using complete sentences. (3 points each)

Visiting Scotland gives us the opportunity to enjoy wild and wonderful scenery. The countryside has mountains and valleys, beautiful lochs (lakes), and rivers. Its towns and cities have a rich cultural life, good accommodation, and a variety of places to eat and drink. It is a friendly and welcoming place where the landscape, history, culture, and cuisine are all part of a great experience.

Scotland is one of the few special places left in Europe where it is possible to be alone in isolated countryside. This does not mean that Scotland does not have crowded roads or tourist attractions, but it is easy to escape from those and find peaceful places to enjoy.

1. What does Scotland's countryside have?

It has mountains, valleys, beautiful lochs (lakes), and rivers.

2. What do Scotland's towns and cities have?
