

> Reading

MUSIC FESTIVALS

1 Read the text and circle the best title.

- a. How to Get Tickets to a Music Festival
- b. A Look at a British Music Festival
- c. Different Types of Music Festivals

Since the end of the 1960s, pop music festivals have become very popular all over the world. One of the largest in England is at Glastonbury in June. It has become very famous and attracts the best British bands.

This is what Carol says about the festival: "I've been to Glastonbury for the last four years and I love it! The music's brilliant and the atmosphere is really good."

The Glastonbury festival usually lasts three days, from Friday to Sunday, and you can buy your ticket at record shops or on the Internet. Many people buy a three-day ticket and stay in tents at the festival campsite.

One problem at the campsite is keeping clean. Another teenager at the festival, James, has told us why: "There are thousands of people here and I haven't had a shower since I arrived two days ago. It's impossible. You just have to accept that you're going to be dirty."

2 Read the text again and answer the questions.

1. How long have pop music festivals been popular?

Since the end of the 1960s.

2. What is the name of a famous English festival?

3. How many years has Carol been going to Glastonbury?

4. How many days is the festival?

5. Where can you buy the tickets?

6. Where do many people stay at the festival?

7. What is a problem at the campsite?

8. What hasn't James done at Glastonbury?

> Writing

3 Would you like to go to a music festival? Write your opinion. Include these things:

- Why would/wouldn't you like to go?
- What do you think are the good things and bad things about a music festival?