

> Consolidation

1 Match these question tags with the sentences.

hasn't it?	aren't we?	will they?
don't you?	don't they?	won't she?
doesn't she?	haven't we?	aren't they?
doesn't it?	won't he?	isn't she?
isn't it?

Tag questions with be

- We're eating Chinese food, aren't we? _____
- Jessica's dancing in her bedroom,

- My dog's playing in the park,

- Ben and Ann are watching a DVD,

Tag questions with do

- Sally plays the guitar in a band,

- The record store opens at 10 on Sundays,

- You go swimming every evening,

- Your sisters go to a club on Fridays,

Tag questions with will and won't

- Peter will listen to music in the morning,

- Your mom will bake a cake for me,

- They won't fix his car,

Tag questions with have

- We have been to the Egyptian pyramids,

- It has been snowing for four days,

> Extension

2 Make tag questions with the words in parentheses.

Tag questions with be

- (affirmative: they / eat / Chinese food)
They eat Chinese food, don't they?

- (negative: he / belong / club)

- (affirmative: she / sleep late / Saturdays)

- (negative: they / driving / to California)

Tag questions with do

- (affirmative: he / like / chocolate)

- (negative: they / know / ride a bike)

- (affirmative: we / love / our grandmother)

Tag questions with will and won't

- (negative: we / be late for the movie)

- (affirmative: he / fail / the driving test)

- (negative: they / run / in the rain)

Tag questions with have

- (negative: he / kiss / her)

- (affirmative: they / bake cookies before)

- (affirmative: we / gotten lost / on this mountain before)

- (negative: we / been walking / for so long)
