

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Listening Strategies

(Unit 2, page 22; Use before completing the answers to Exercise B)

Listening for discourse markers

Learning to listen for language that introduces specific examples will help you focus attention on key information.

Practice. Listen to Part 2 of the talk. Pay attention to the discourse markers listed below. In your own words, complete each statement with a summary of what the speaker said.

For example...

---

---

The idea is to...

---

---

Another benefit is...

---

---

That means that...

---

---

Research has shown that...

---

---

Other research suggests...

---

---