

Unit 18 Hollywood mystery

Practice

1 PAIRS. Practice the conversation. Then switch roles.

A: I'm investigating the robbery, and I have a few questions for you. Where were you when (1) you heard the noise?

B: I (2) was typing a letter, Officer. I heard a loud scream.

A: (3) What happened next?

B: I ran out of my office. Poor Julia was lying on the floor in the hallway. (4) Her big diamond ring was gone!

A: Did you see anyone?

B: Yes, I think I saw a man. He (5) was running down the hall.

A: (6) Can you describe him?

B: He looked like . . . actually, I can't remember!

Substitute

2 PAIRS. Use the substitutions in the box to create a new conversation. Practice the conversation. Then switch roles.

For example,

A: I'm investigating the robbery, and I have a few questions for you. Where were you when the gold necklace was stolen?

B: I was filing some papers, Officer. I heard a loud scream.

Student A	Student B
(1) the gold necklace was stolen	(2) was filing some papers
(3) Then what did you do?	(4) The thief took her gold necklace!
(6) What did he look like?	(5) was climbing out the window

Personalize

3 PAIRS. Role-play the conversation. Use your own words for the underlined parts. Then switch roles.
