

Which? : Answer key

1. Which? magazine started in 1957.
True. Which? magazine started in 1957
2. Advertising in Which? magazine is very expensive.
False. Which? magazine has no advertising.
3. You can buy Which? magazine in newspaper shops.
False. Members subscribe to the magazine which is mailed to their homes.
4. The Consumers' Association campaigned against the introduction of seat belts in vehicles carrying children.
False. They persuaded the government to introduce this law.
5. The Australian Consumers' Association has a magazine called Aware.
False. Their magazine is called Choice.
6. The head office of Consumers International is in London.
True. It's head office is in London.