

Module 8 - Defining moments

These words all appeared in the reading on page 86-87 or in the "Are you a political animal?" questions on page 87. Look at the words below and choose the definition on the right closest to the way the word was used in the text. The first set of words has one extra definition; the rest have two extra definitions for each set.

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| Annexe | <input type="checkbox"/> showing or feeling very little interest |
| Apparently | <input type="checkbox"/> as it seems |
| Apathetic | <input type="checkbox"/> addition to something (e.g. to a document) |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> a building added to another one |
| Campaign | <input type="checkbox"/> people who believe others do not do things for good/sincere reasons |
| Constitution | <input type="checkbox"/> the condition of a person's body with regard to health/strength |
| Cynics | <input type="checkbox"/> the laws according to which a state is governed |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> a series of military operations |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> a series of planned activities with a particular commercial or political aim |
| Deficit | <input type="checkbox"/> disappointed/mislead |
| Demonstration | <input type="checkbox"/> the amount of money short of what is required |
| Disillusioned | <input type="checkbox"/> the excess of debts over income |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> showing how something works |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> a protest usually on the streets against/supporting something |
| Eccentric | <input type="checkbox"/> to have the right to something |
| Election | <input type="checkbox"/> unusual/strange |
| Entitle(d) | <input type="checkbox"/> not circular or not having the same centre |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> to give a name to a book, play, etc. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> a way of choosing by voting |

Cutting Edge Upper Intermediate Worksheet

Launched	<input type="checkbox"/> the material used for the inside of a jacket or coat
Lining	<input type="checkbox"/> the taking off of a ship or rocket
Lucrative	<input type="checkbox"/> (when used with pockets) means to make money usually dishonestly <input type="checkbox"/> to start a career in something <input type="checkbox"/> profitable
March	<input type="checkbox"/> the head of a council of a city or borough
Mayor	<input type="checkbox"/> the way which soldiers walk (regular steps of equal length)
Morals	<input type="checkbox"/> practical lessons to stories (things to learn from stories/experiences) <input type="checkbox"/> standards of behaviour / your principles <input type="checkbox"/> a protest through the streets
Petty	<input type="checkbox"/> unimportant
Platform	<input type="checkbox"/> beliefs/ideals
Policies	<input type="checkbox"/> raised floor <input type="checkbox"/> main aims on which a political party is based <input type="checkbox"/> contracts of insurance
Recession	<input type="checkbox"/> thought
Reckoned	<input type="checkbox"/> a series of hits of the ball in a game of tennis before a point is won
Rally	<input type="checkbox"/> a large gathering of people usually for political reasons <input type="checkbox"/> opposite of boom <input type="checkbox"/> used with "with" to mean considered important
Serve	<input type="checkbox"/> to put the ball into play in a game of tennis
Slogan	<input type="checkbox"/> meeting between the heads of governments
Summit	<input type="checkbox"/> the highest point <input type="checkbox"/> a phrase that is easy to remember <input type="checkbox"/> to perform the duties of the post to which you have been appointed

Cutting Edge Upper Intermediate Worksheet

Now using the definitions you are left with match them with one of the words on the left to show another meaning of the word. See the example below.

- Annexe showing or feeling very little interest
Apparently as it seems
Apathetic addition to something (e.g. to a document)
 A building added to another one
- Campaign people who believe others do not do things for good/sincere reasons
Constitution the condition of a person's body with regard to health/strength
Cynics the laws according to which a state is governed a series of military operations a series of planned activities with a particular commercial or political aim
- Deficit disappointed/mislead
Demonstration the amount of money short of what is required
Disillusioned the excess of debts over income showing how something works a protest usually on the streets against/supporting something
- Eccentric to have the right to something
Election unusual/strange
Entitle(d) not circular or not having the same centre to give a name to a book, play, etc.
 a way of choosing by voting
- Launched the material used for the inside of a jacket or coat
Lining the taking off of a ship or rocket Lucrative (when used with pockets) means to make money usually dishonestly to start a career in something profitable

Cutting Edge Upper Intermediate Worksheet

March	<input type="checkbox"/> the head of a council of a city or borough
Mayor	<input type="checkbox"/> the way which soldiers walk (regular steps of equal length)
Morals	<input type="checkbox"/> practical lessons to stories (things to learn from stories/experiences) <input type="checkbox"/> standards of behaviour / your principles <input type="checkbox"/> a protest through the streets
Petty	<input type="checkbox"/> unimportant
Platform	<input type="checkbox"/> beliefs/ideals
Policies	<input type="checkbox"/> raised floor <input type="checkbox"/> main aims on which a political party is based <input type="checkbox"/> contracts of insurance
Recession	<input type="checkbox"/> thought
Reckoned	<input type="checkbox"/> a series of hits of the ball in a game of tennis before a point is won
Rally	<input type="checkbox"/> a large gathering of people usually for political reasons <input type="checkbox"/> opposite of boom <input type="checkbox"/> used with "with" to mean considered important
Serve	<input type="checkbox"/> to put the ball into play in a game of tennis
Slogan	<input type="checkbox"/> meeting between the heads of governments
Summit	<input type="checkbox"/> the highest point <input type="checkbox"/> a phrase that is easy to remember <input type="checkbox"/> to perform the duties of the post to which you have been appointed

Now from each group choose one word which has two definitions and write one sentence for each to show you understand the different meanings.

Module 8 Teacher's notes (To be used with p.86-87)

These words all appeared in the reading on page 86-87 or in the "Are you a political animal?" questions on page 87. Look at the words below and choose the definition on the right closest to the way the word was used in the text. The first set of words has one extra definition; the rest have two extra definitions for each set.

Annexe	a building added to another one
Apparently	as it seems
Apathetic	showing or feeling very little interest
Campaign	a series of planned activities with a particular commercial or political
Constitution	the laws according to which a state is governed
Cynics	people who believe others do not do things for good/sincere reasons
Deficit	the excess of debts over income
Demonstration	a protest usually on the streets against/supporting something
Disillusioned	disappointed/mislead
Eccentric	unusual/strange
Election	a way of choosing by voting
Entitle(d)	to give a name to a book, play, etc.
Launched	the taking off of a ship or rocket
Lining	(when used with pockets) means to make money usually dishonestly
Lucrative	profitable
March	a protest through the streets
Mayor	the head of a council of a city or borough
Morals	standards of behaviour / your principles
Petty	unimportant
Platform	main aims on which a political party is based
Policies	beliefs/ideals
Recession	opposite of boom
Reckoned	used with "with" to mean considered important
Rally	a series of hits of the ball in a game of tennis before a point is won
Serve	to perform the duties of the post to which you have been appointed to
Slogan	a phrase that is easy to remember
Summit	meeting between the heads of governments

Cutting Edge Upper Intermediate Worksheet

Now using the definitions you are left with match them with one of the words on the left to show another meaning of the word. See the example below.

Annexe	addition to something (e.g. to a document)
Campaign	a series of military operations
Constitution	the condition of a person's body with regard to health/strength
Deficit	the amount of money short of what is required
Demonstration	showing how something works
Eccentric	not circular or not having the same centre
Entitle(d)	to have the right to something
Launched	the taking off of a ship or rocket
Lining	the material used for the inside of a jacket or coat
March	the way which soldiers walk (regular steps of equal length)
Morals	practical lessons to stories (things to learn from stories/experiences)
Platform	raised floor
Policies	contracts of insurance
Reckoned	thought
Rally	a large gathering of people usually for political reasons
Serve	to put the ball into play in a game of tennis
Summit	the highest point

