Which article?

Fill in the gaps in the sentences below with the correct article or `-` (no article) if nothing is needed!

a) _____ Emperor penguins live in ____ Antarctic and the male penguin keeps the egg warm all winter whilst the female penguin goes to the sea to feed.

b) _____ Scottish are proud of their heritage and also ______ stunning landscape that they offer visitors.

c) ______ Manchester United are _____ very successful football club who have won various leagues and titles.

d) The Prime Minister of the UK lives at _____ 10, Downing Street in _______ London.

e) It was _____ crisp and cold winter night and ______ moon was shining brightly across the night sky.

f) I love _____ spring flowers. It’s wonderful to see their colours as ______ cold winter draws to an end.

g) Look! There’s been _____ announcement in the papers about _____ opening of the new sports centre.

h) The holiday chalet is overpriced I think. £650 _____ week is ridiculously expensive for such ______ small chalet.

i) ______ headmaster will decide whether or not _____ school trip will still go ahead.

j) Chantelle is learning to play _____ piano. She’s very talented and obviously has _____ natural aptitude for it.

k) _____ Thames runs right through London and is the focus of much activity such as boat trips, parties on ______ boats and riverside cafes.

l) _____ Lake Como is situated in _____ north of Italy.

m) Shall we meet a bit later on, outside ______ cinema?

n) Carolina is _____ qualified lawyer now and works in _____ central London.

Compare your answers with your partner.
Which article?

TEACHER’S NOTES:

Aim: to provide further practice of articles. This worksheet is designed to be used in conjunction with unit 6.1.

Time: 40 minutes

Materials: copy of the worksheet for each student

Ask students to fill in the gaps with the correct article or just a dash to indicate no article. Students then compare their answers with each other. Check answers with the class.

Answers: a) no article needed/the; b) The/the; c) no article needed/a; d) no article needed/no article needed; e) a/the; f) no article needed/the; g) an/the; h) a/a; i) The/the; j) the/a; k) The/no article needed; l) No article needed/the; m) the; n) a/no article needed