

DO YOU WANT TO BECOME AN ELT WRITER?

Are you...?

- an experienced EL teacher who is interested in becoming an ELT writer

Do you have...?

- experience in writing lesson plans, worksheets, and other classroom resources
- experience in assessing level, objectives, and skills needed for materials
- experience in using basic word and excel programs
- a native level ability in English-language usage, spelling and grammar
- a minimum of 10–15 hours availability/week

Write up your favourite lesson plan (1–2 pages) and one of the following (1 page):
a worksheet, a warmer, a filler, study tips, teaching tips, a game, an article on methodology.

Send your writing samples, CV and a cover letter to Carol Rueckert at carol.rueckert@pearson.com.

Don't forget to specify the targeted audience (young learners/teenagers/adults) and the level (beginner/intermediate/advanced) of your materials, as well as your availability.

PEARSON
Longman

DO YOU WANT TO BECOME AN ELT WRITER?