

Present perfect simple with ever and never

Remember

Ever and never go before the past participle

Have you ever been abroad?

My mother has never tried Chinese food.

Use the prompts to write the questions. Then give your answers.

Example      A: you / see / a lion      Have you ever seen a lion?
You:      Yes, I've seen a lion. / No, I've never seen a lion.

1 A:      see / the Taj Mahal

You:

2 A:      ride / a bicycle

You:

3 A:      go / another country

You:

4 A:      climb / a mountain

You:

5 A:      meet / a famous person

You:

6 A:      skate

You :

7 A:      play / in a band

You:

8 A:      cook / a meal

You:

9 A:      read / a story in English

You:

10 A:      go / camping

You:

11 A:      break / a bone

You:

12 A:      make / an object out of wood

You:

(From Progress in English Grammar – Olivia Johnston, Gulay Kiratli)