

3 MISSING INFORMATION: THE EUROVISION SONG CONTEST

Student A

A daily newspaper is publishing each day a short description of some of the singers taking part in the Eurovision Song Contest. Here is today's list of singers. Unfortunately, some of the information about them is missing. Ask Student B questions to find out the missing information and fill it in (Student B also has missing information and will ask you questions.)

You can ask questions like these:

- How old is ... (say name)?
- Where does ... (say name) ... live?
- Which country is ... (say name) ... singing for?
- Is ... (say name) ... married or single?
- How long has ... (say name) ... been a pop singer?
- What are ... (say name)'s interests?
- What is the name of the song ... (say name) ... is going to sing?
- What is ... (say name)'s ambition?

(Note: The Eurovision Song Contest is a competition held once a year by the various television companies in Europe to pick the best pop song. There is a jury in each country who gives marks for each song and the song with the highest total is the winner. The competitors from each country must sing the song in the language of that country.)
