

7

Read the ad and the letters again. Choose the best person for the band. Tell the class about your choice.

Tip

Your purpose now is to match the requirements and the information in the letters. Underline the requirements in the ad and look in the text for related words.

Read it right!

8

Tick (✓) the correct answer.

- a To find the important information to match the pictures with the letters (your purpose in Exercise 5), it is necessary to look for:
- the talents of the people. the descriptions of the people.
- b To find the important information to choose the best person for the new band (your purpose in Exercise 7), it is necessary to look for:
- the talents of the people. the height of the people.
- the ages of the people. the descriptions of the people.

Remember

Before you read a text, think about your purpose. Try to predict some words you probably need to find (key words). Find the key words in the text and read that part more carefully.

2.1

Who is your favourite applicant, Charlie, Pat, Chris or Frankie? Use the words from Exercise 2 and their letters to write notes about him/her.

Example: Charlie Taylor - good singer, attractive

2.2

Compare your choice with a friend's. Do you agree?

WRITING

10

Write a letter to Talent Scouts International. Follow the plan below and look at the letters for help.

Remember

Remember to write your address, the date, and the address of the people you are writing to. Don't forget to sign it!

Write your address here

Write the address of Talent Scouts International here
Write the date here

Dear Sir/Madam,

I'm writing about your ad in the newspaper.

1 Write two or three sentences giving your name, age and nationality.

2 Write two or three sentences describing yourself.

3 Write two or three sentences about your personality.

4 Write one sentence about your talents.

Yours faithfully,

Sign your name here