The waitress is very slow and keeps forgetting things so the customers have to repeat their order. Unfortunately because she is deaf she has to keep walking back to the table to hear the customers which means everything takes even longer. When she eventually brings over their soup she manages to spill it all so the bowls are empty when she puts them on the table.

Unit 8 – The Notting Hill Carnival

1

Students' own answers

2

3

The Notting Hill Carnival is a huge London carnival – about a million people come to be in the carnival or to just watch it. It happens every August. There are about 70 bands with their own music, costumes and carnival queen. The costumes are very important for the carnival. Clary Salandy started designing costumes 15 years ago. Her carnival queen is a young woman called Tamiko, who has had lots of experience. She puts on her carnival costume – it's very comfortable because it's not as heavy as it looks. When it comes to the carnival weekend, the bands parade through the streets – the costumes look amazing and it's an unforgettable experience.
