Which ones?

1 Read the paragraph. Find 9 words you can change to one/ones.

I went shopping with my best friend last week. The first shop was very noisy, so we came out very quickly. The second shop was great - lots of music and CDs to listen to, and DVDs to look at. I chose four CDs to listen to. The first CD was terrible, but the second CD was fantastic! The other CDs were good, but I decided to buy the second CD.

After that we looked at two cafes for lunch and chose the first café because it had a healthy menu. I had a salad and a drink, and my best friend had a sandwich and two cakes! She was very hungry and couldn't choose a cake, as they were all so lovely, but in the end she chose a chocolate cake and a fruit cake, because the other cakes were too big.
