TEACHER'S NOTES:

Aim: to provide further practice of auxiliary forms. This worksheet is designed to be used in conjunction with unit 1.1.

Time: 40 minutes

Materials: photocopies of the worksheet for each student

- 1 Students read the question prompts and then expand these to form full questions. Monitor the activity whilst students complete the questions. Elicit the questions from the class.

Answers: 1 Which film star do you like best? 2 Do you (ever) book holidays on the internet? 3 When do you worry about money?/Do you ever worry about money? 4 Are you interested in conservation? 5 Is there are pop artist you don't like?/Which pop artist don't you like? 6 What does your best friend look like? 7 Do you like reading gossip or sport in the newspapers? 8 Do you ever talk about politics with your friends?

- 2 Students ask each other the questions responding with a short answer form using the auxiliary form of the verb and then give a reason for each answer. Go around the class to monitor, making sure that students are taking notes of their partner's answers.
- 3 Students get practice of the third person auxiliary by writing down all their partner's responses using complete sentences.
- 4 Students swap their work at the end to correct each others. Monitor to check that all corrections are correct. Ask any interesting answers to be read out to the class.
