

Total English

Starter

Have you got.....?

1 Complete the text with 've, 's, hasn't or haven't.

Ellie lives in Brighton in the UK. She¹__ got a beautiful house. She lives with her sister, Martha. They²__ got a big garden with their house. They³__ got a sofa, but they⁴__ got two big armchairs. Ellie⁵__ got a car, but she⁶__ got a bicycle. Cycling is fun! They⁷__ got a garage next to their house.

2 Ask your partner if he or she has got the possessions in the box. Write the questions.

bicycle	computer	suitcase
digital camera	interesting book	car

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____
- d) _____
- e) _____
- f) _____

3 Correct the mistakes in the sentences.

- a) I's got a big car.
- b) George haven't got a computer.
- c) Freya've got a beautiful house.
- d) Has you got a bicycle?
- e) I hasn't got a mobile phone.
- f) We got a digital camera.

Total English

Starter

Have you got.....?

TEACHER'S NOTES:

Aim: to provide further practice of have got/has got and saying what things you possess. This worksheet is designed to be used in conjunction with unit 8.2.

Time: 40 minutes

Materials: copy of the worksheet for each student

- 1 Students fill the gaps in the text. Elicit answers from the class.

Answers: 1) 's; 2) 've; 3) haven't; 4) 've; 5) hasn't; 6) 's; 7) 've

- 2 Students write questions for each of the possessions and ask their partner if he or she has got each possession. Each question starts Have you got.....? Monitor as they work to check students are using the grammar correctly.
- 3 Students correct the mistakes in the sentences. Elicit answers from the class.

Answers:

- a) I've got a big car.
- b) George hasn't got a computer.
- c) Freya's got a beautiful house.
- d) Have you got a bicycle?
- e) I haven't got a mobile phone.
- f) We've got a digital camera.