Talking about holidays

- 1 Work in pairs. Choose a country or place from the box. Plan a holiday to one of the countries. Write your plan below.

Australia	Thailand	Brazil	Alaska
Hawaii	Switzerland	the UK	Kenya

We're going to Australia for three weeks. We're going to go to Sydney and the Great Barrier Reef...

- 2 Ask other students about their holiday. Ask them the questions in the box.

	Student A	Student B
Where are you going on holiday?
How long for?
Are you going to visit some cities? Which ones?
Are you going to visit the countryside?
Where are you going to stay?

- 3 Write descriptions of Student A and Student B's planned holidays.

Talking about holidays

TEACHER'S NOTES:

Aim: to provide further practice of talking about future holidays. This worksheet is designed to be used in conjunction with unit 10.

Time: 30-40 minutes

Materials: copy of the worksheet for each student

- 1 Students work in pairs and choose a destination that they both like. The students write a plan for their holiday using going to. Monitor to check that they use going to correctly and also check if they need help with any vocabulary.
- 2 Students then ask other pairs about their planned holidays and fill in the information in the tables.
- 3 Students write descriptions of the holidays they found out about. At this point ask for class feedback. Encourage students to ask questions about other pairs' holidays.
